GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

STALWART NOT ELIGIBLE FOR THE BRIGHTON CUP.

Neither Is Beldame, but It Will Be an Interesting Race Just the Same -Passing of Former Equine Stars -Principal Stake Events for the Week.

Slalwart, winner of the Century and the Annual Champion, and considered now to be the best three-year-old colt in training. will not be a starter in the $10,000 Brighton Cup, two miles and a quarter, to be run at the beach track next Saturday. The Meddler dolt was not entered by Thomas & Shields for this long distance event, probably because they did not believe him capable of going such a journey, but they named Hermis, Advance Guard, Onatas and Andy Williams instead, and all are still eligible, though probably not one of them will go to the post. If Stalwart had been named he would probably have carried the confidence and money of the public, as he is the best long distance horse in the East to-day, having beater Ort Wells, Broomstick, Major Daingerfield Africander and others over a tiresome route. He won the Annual Champion so easily that many were inclined to stamp him the best horse of the year, but that, perhaps, would be stretching the point a trifle. That he is the champion colt of his age there seems little room for doubt, but whether he could take the measure of the peerless Beldame, the queen of three-year-old fillies, in a long distance race is an open question. Beldame's victory over Ort Wells last week was so impressive that she was pronounced a phenomenon. Beldame will also be an absentee from the Brighton Cup affair, to the further disappointment of the lovers of interesting maces over a distance of ground.

But the absence of Stalwart and Beldame does not mean that the Brighton Cup will not afford an interesting race. W. B. Leeds's colors will be carried by either Major Daingerfield or Hurstbourne, probably the former, in view of his good race in the Annual Champion, when he defeated Broomstick for second money. On the strength of this performance the erratic Major will probably be heavily backed to win, but it is safe betting that he will have some tough customers to beat, including the slowly improving McChesney. It is a matter of fact that McChesney has been gradually prepared for the Cuprace and that Trainer Frank Taylor will have him as fit as human hands can get him when he faces the starter next Saturday. In a race last week "Big Mac," though left at the post, ran with much of the old fire and vim and ran fourth, a scant length outside of the money. This performance was of sufficient guarantee that McCnes-ney is coming to hand and that in the Cup race he will be worth a bet.

Africander may go, too, in spite of the thorough beating he received in the Annual Champion. The Star Ruby colt has evidently gone so far back that he will never be able to recover his form of a year ago.

Frank Weir has labored with him for two months, yet Africander has failed to come back to the condition that enabled him to carry off the three-year-old honors last season. It is possible that the colt, profiting by his gruelling race in the Annual Champion, un better for the cup, but it seems hardly reasonable to expect him to win unless he shows a wonderful improvement. John A. Drake may start Ort Wells, but in the estimation of many turfmen the King Eric solt has had more than his share of racing and needs a rest. Still he will have had a rest of ten days if he goes to the barrier, and Enoch Wishard sometimes works wonders with played out horses, so that it will not be totally unexpected if Ort Wells runs up to his earlier form.

A. Featherstone's Igniter, a good long to his earlier form.

A. Featherstone's Igniter, a good long distance performer and winner of the Annual Champion last year, may be a starter, also August Belmont's Lord of the Vale, winner of the Saratoga Handicap. S. S. Brown's eligibles are Conjurer and Audience, while George Hendrie can start his game horse Reservation. Eugenia Burch. in Mrs. L. Curtis's colors, may be sent along together with Fred Burlew's Hello, the latter always formidable in long distance events. It is also probable that The Picket will be seen in this race, as he has been working steadily for several weeks, and not long ago turned an easy mile and a quarter in 2:13 1-5, showing no traces of the lameness which made it impossible to fill engagements after running in the Saratoga Handicap.

The fall meeting at the Beach which opens. The fall meeting at the Beach, which open to-day, will wind up on Saturday, after which here will be two weeks of racing at Gravesend. To-morrow the Cup Preliminary, a weight-forage race, at a mile and a half, will be run, the starters being some of those who intend to go in Saturday's big race. On Wednesday the second half of the Produce Stakes, for twoyear-old fillies, will be the feature. This turf prize would seem to be at the mercy of H. B. Duryea, who has three eligibles—Tanya, Rose of Dawn and Princess Ruperta. The Mercury Handicap, for two-year-olds and upward, at six furlongs, will be run on Thursday. E. R. Thomas can start Reliable, Lady Amelia and Stalwart. John E. Madden will surely start his two-year-old Waterside. providing the weight is acceptable, while Joeund, Mineola, Blandy, Rosetint, Collector Jessup, Spring, Leonidas and other good sprinters will probably go, too. In addition to the cup race on Saturday the Chantilly Steeplechase will be a feature and also the Undergraduate Stakes, for two-year-olds. for which the best eligibles are Dreamer, Bul-wark, Broadcloth, Salvage, Gamara, Sim-plicity, Lindsay Gordon and Quadrille. The beating administered to A'ricander on Saturday brought to mind the fact that horaes looked upon las invincible world beaters by their rabid followers a year ago have been temporarily set aside, perhaps forever, in the fickle favor of the public. and Hermis were the idols not long ago, only to be succeeded by such performers as Ort Wells, Delhi, Broomstick, Beldame, Stalwart and others. Waterboy will never race again, as he has already arrived at J. B. Haggin's Elmendorf Stud. Irish 1 ad, too will probably be retired at H. P. Whitney's Brookdale establishment in view of his breakdown in the Brighton Handicap. Hermis went lame just after winning the Test Handical from Beldame at the Beach in July, and it slow that fears are entertained as to his future career. McChesney and Africander, both racing yet, are pitiful wrecks, though they may be rejuvenated. Whether it is excessive racing or some other thing that has caused so many great horses to lose their grip nobody seems to know, but the withdrawel of these stars has made a great differ-

Newton Bennington says now that he will match Beldame against Hamburg Belle pro-viding the distance is one mile and a furlong. Bennington says he understood the propo-sition from the Paget stable to mean a sprint of six or seven furlongs, which he could never entertain. At a mile and a half Bennington thinks Beldame can give Hamburg Belle ten pounds and a beating. It is safe to pre-dict that, under the circumstances, there will be no meeting between these star three-year-be no meeting perwell these star that you do did fillies.

Horsemen are waxing enthusiastic over the two-year-old filly Tradition, who won the Great Eastern Handicap so easily on Saturday with the crushing impost of 128 pounds. Running second in the Futurity and victorious in the Flatbush Stakes, Traditional transfer with dition has impressed expert turfmen with her greatness to such an extent that they are readily declaring her the best filly of her age seen here in many years and, in fact, the best two-year-old of the season. Could Tradition and Sysonby, the best coil, meet at even weights, the majority of horsemen would probably support the filly. Cariously enough these sharps leave Artful, the Futurity winner, out of the calculations altogether, the impression being almost unanimous that with stake weight up she could not cope successfully with either. Tradition not cope successfully with either Tradition not cope successfully with either Tradition or Sysonby. But as a matter of fact Artful has only run and won a single big stake. She nas not been extended and nobody knows what she can do with a heavy impost on her back. She was injured slightly in the Great Filly Stakes, and has not raced since.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BRIGHTON. Produce Stakes of $15,000 for Two-Year Olds the Feature.

The fall meeting at Brighton Beach opens to-day with a magnetic card, including the first half of the $15,000 Produce Stakes for two-year-old colts and geldings, at six furlongs. Sydney Paget has named Woodsaw, Diamond and Tongorder, while James R. Keene's Wild Mint, John E. Madden's Wild Irishman, John W. Schorr's Jack Lory, E. W. Jewett's Bedouin and W. C. Daly's Amberjack are the others. In the handicap, at a mile and an eighth, Pulsus, Dekaber, Grey Friar and Rosetint look promising on recent performances. There are some good sprinters in the first race, at six furlongs, including Jocund, Mimosa, Major Pelham, Ancestor Jocund, Mimosa, Major Pelham, Ancestor and Collector Jessup. NEW CYCLING RECORD. Champion Kramer Rides Mile in 1:49 2-5 on Handicap Day at Vallsburg. Yesterday was the annual "Handicap day" it the Vailsburg cycle track, all of the events, even the novice race, being handicapped. The mile professional race was won by Kramer after a great struggle all the way, and the champion hung up new American figures for the distance and was within two-fifths of a second of equalling the world's record of 1 minute and 49 seconds, made by McFarland in Australia last winter Root and the Bedell brothers at 40 yards were closest to Kramer. There were twenty-nine starters in all, six having the limit allowance of 180 yards. Lee of New York, Limberg of San José, Cal., and Chappey of Little Falls, made their debut as professionals in this race. Kramer quickly caught Root and the Bedells and the quartette took turns pacing, catching the field after riding five-eighths of a mile. Kramer was more than ten lengths behind the leader at the bell, but he gained ground rapidly in the last lap. but he gained ground rapidly in the last lap.

as he entered the last turn and gained fast on by a length. Root was a few inches back of Menus Bedell at the tape. When the spectators were told the time of the mile, I minute

ON THE BROOKLYN SPEEDWAY. Many Horsemen on the Course and Many Brushes Decided.

Brooklyn's Speedway was the mecca for undreds yesterday. Many well contested brushes took place. Andrew Cone, driving the black mare Alice Drake, 2:14%, turned with William J. Reddy's gray gelding Brandy wine, 2:19%, and won by less than half a length in a fast brush. A. H. Gutkes, driving Ayin a fast brush. A. H. Heffernan, driving McDonald, 2:16%, defeated Charles Ring's gelding Lord Nelson, 2:21%, in the following brush. A tilt between J. H. Thornton's black stallion Bonnie Kirkland and William J. Reddy's Brandywine went to the latter, and was followed by a victory for the latter, and was followed by a victory for Joseph T. Carboy, driving Carrie Clay, 2:21%, over McDonald. Frank Jacobus, with the reins over Kanawha Star, 2:14%, defeated J. T. NEW STAR ON THE SPEEDWAY

FLORENCE WILTON, DRIVEN BY JACK CURRY, STIRS THINGS UP.

Goes a Quarter in 0:20-Kingmend Reappears on the Drive-Freeland and Nighthawk Renew Hostilities With the Result in Doubt-Other Contests.

There was a new star on the Speedway yesterday that promises to make a name for herself in the front rank of the Speedway lyers. It was the bay pacer Florence Wilton. recently in the training stable of J. C. Curry, where she was used as a working companion to Prince Alert, 1:59%, owing to her ability to carry the clip as fast as the champion. W. C. Greene sent her out yesterday in charge of his trainer, G. V. Klotzbach, and it was the first time the mare ever had been harnessed to a wagon. Unfortunately the mare was among the early arrivals, before any that really figured in her class had put in an appearance. She beat half a dozen competitors and was then sent to the stable. After her series of easy brushes Klotzbach breezed her a half mile in 1:01. She covered the first quarter in 29 seconds, and would have paced the distance in an even minute had she not made a break in the level footing down the made a break in the level footing down the dip to the finish.

In her first start Florence Wilton met the gray pacer Bicycle Girl, 2:20%, driven by Samuel Bloch, and it proved just a nice warming spin to beat the gray whirlwind. Mr. Abbott, behind the black trotter Tempesta, was the next to finish behind Florence Wilton. Then James A. Murphy, behind the chestnut pacer Dusty Wilkes, 2:15%, took a shy at the new star, but after hanging to her for a quarter of a mile Dusty declared himself out in a losing break.

Another newcomer that promises to be a factor hereafter was Claus Bohling's trotter factor hereafter was Claus Bohling's trotter Kingmond, 2:09. It is two years since Kingmond won the Speedway championship, since which time he has been on the shelf with a weak ankle. Kingmond opened the renewal campaign in a splendid brush with the bay trotter Juno T., 2:13½, driven by Andrew Kane, and won by nearly half a length. Nathan Straus, behind the black trotter Ted, 2:15½, tools a hand in the next brush, and finished an easy winner. In the breakaway the horses were off like a triple hitch and trotted to the quarter mile post on even terms. Shortly after passing this point even terms. Shortly after passing this point, Kingmond made a break and dropped out of the race. Juno T., under a vigorous drive, held on persistently, but in the final rally Ted drew to the front and won by three parts of a length. Later Mr. Straus took the reins behind Cobwebs, 2:12, and won a nice brush from the bay trotter Norman S., driven by Max Simon.

The first brush of the day was between the trotter Gray Billy, 2:16%, driven by William Scott, and the chestnut pacer Rob Roy, with Toby Greenbaum at the reins. Gray Billy won. Gray Billy was beaten in the next brush, his competitor being the bay trotter Antonio, Jr., driven by Isaac Fleming. Later Antonio, Jr., finished in front of the black trotter Too Soon, 2:24%, driven by Isaac Hopper.
After his defeat by Gray Billy, Rob Roy redeemed himself by winning a nice brush from the bay trotter Major, driven by Hugo Lehman. Antonio, Jr., figured in a losing brush when he was sent to tackle John F. Cockerill's team, Gracie and Miss Hibbard Freeland, 2:17%, and Nighthawk, 2:23%, the persistent rival trotters, had the closest finish of the day. Freeland rushed away and assumed the lead at once, and he held it until he sighted the finishing post. Then he began to shorten sail, and Mr. Goodman drew his whip and used it vigorously. Free-land was surprised, but before he could get at speed again Nighthawk headed him and the actual winner was a matter of doubt. This brush seemed to thoroughly thaw out Nighthawk, and in the next tilt he beat David Lamar's former champion, The King, 2:10%, driven by M. L. Simon. Then Nighthawk won a nice brush from George Huber's Marie Pandit and William Scott's Gray Billy, 2:16%.

Marie Pandit redeemed herself by winning twice from the double gaited Index, 2:21%, driven by E. J. La Place. Index decided to pace yesterday, and he did not make a winning performance. C. S. Rice and his roan pacer Amy Wilkes, 2:16%, figured in the winning division. Amy Wilkes beat the handsome pacer Billy Palmer 2:25%, driven by Ben Lichten won from the trotter James Shevlin, 2:13%, driven by Henry Phillips, in one of the best finishes of the morning. Billy Palmer made a break and dropped out of the race. Later Amy Wilkes easily defeated Index and closed a break and dropped out of the race. Later Amy Wilkes easily defeated Index and closed the good work of the morning by defeating the gray pacer Bicycle Girl.

Bicycle Girl and her rival, Hugh Mack 2:184, driven by P. F. Drew, figured in several keen starts, but not one stirring finish. In the first start Hugh Mack made a break just before making the quarter-mile post, and then he was taken in hand. It was Bicycle Girl that made the break in the second brush, and then Hugh Mack was an easy winner. The third attempt resulted the same.

Charles Weiland, behind the pacer Johnny Agan, 2:054, won a number of easy brushes. The chestnut pacer Fred W. 2:284, big and lusty after a long season of idleness, finished behind Johnny Agan and so did W. W. Cochran, with the big pacer Startle Wilkes, 2:144, It was late when P. J. Sloyan arrived with the chestnut pacer Francis S., 2:185, but he tackled Johnny Agan promptly and gave the crowd a nice race. After being beaten by Johnny Agan, Startle Wilkes was sent one brush against the bay pacer Westley R., 2:10, and finished in second place.

Alexander Newberger, behind the pacer two with the chestnut pacer Isaa: Davenport, driven by T. Greenbaum. Later, Better Luck, figured in a number of winning brushes. Among the best were two with the chestnut pacer Isaa: Davenport driven by T. Greenbaum. Later, Better Luck won from the pacer Rob Roy. The troiter Jim Mansfield, 2:244, driven by Mr. Kenney, also won from Isaac Davenport and Rob Roy. The roan trotter Steele Wilker and George Huber's Gracle Pandit figured in four good brushes, Steele Wilkes winning the best we have a Reubar's Gracle Pandit figured in four good brushes, Steele Wilkes winning the best we pacer Reubar's Control of the day was the have pacer Reubar's 2:004 formers the and George Huber's Gracie Pandit figured in four good brushes, Steele Wilkes winning three.

One of the best winners of the day was the bay pacer Reuben S. 2:09% formerly the star of the Alexander stable. Mr. Laughlin, behind the bay pacer Lulu L., tried to take the measure of Reuben S. and failed. Then Reuben S. beat the bay pacer Lucky Boy. 2:17% driven by Mr. Bergman, and later he won from the chestnut pacer Harry H., driven by Henry Heuman, with the pacing team John and Wilson, driven by George Maurer, third, owing to a break. Later Harry H. beat the team single handed. Earlier in the sport the team finished in front of the bay pacer S. D., driven by Mr. Newman, with Harry H. in third place.

The former Grand Circuit trotter Tip T. 2:20%, was a prominent figure, defeating among others the pacer S. D. and the bay trotter King Jack, driven by Mr. Meyer. King Jack won two good brushes from the black trotter Molino Wilkes, 2:24%, driven by C. H. Lott, but had to accept second place when sent to tackle the chestnut trotter Damiana, 2:22%, driven by James Rozell.

C. K. G. Billings, accompanied by his family, was an interested spectator of the morning sport. He drove the prize winning heavy harness pair, The Jester, brother of Lord Derby, 2:05%, and Sir Wilkes. Mr. Billings is now occupying his new home on the site of old Fort Tryon overlooking the Hudsen River, and all his light harness horses will be at the Speedway after the Memphis meeting.

Plainfield Crank—A liftle fly of a teasing nature that falls between the inficiers and outfielders just out of anybody's reach.

Asked how the present New York Nationals compared with the former champion Orioles, Manager McGraw said; "Our pitchers are much stronger than the old Estimore pitchers, and while we are not as strong a hitting team as the Baltimore were, this team will balance up just as strong taking into consideration our base running, fielding and individual strength."

In the series between the New York American and individual strength."

In the series between the New York Americans and Philadelphias the former excelled in run getting and fielding and the laster in Latting. The New Yorks won the series, 12 games to 9, and made 72 runs to Philadelphia's 64. The New Yorks made 186 nits and the Philadelphias 167, and New York made 24 errors to 41 for the Philadelphias.

GRANNAVICH. Conn. Sept. 11—Feerly Feerley.

made 24 errors to 41 for the Palladelphilas.

GREENWICH. Conn., Sept. 11.—Ferdy Kerr. catcher of the Stamford Baseball Club. Is in the Stamford Hospital, suffering from a broken Jaw, the result of a peculiar accident while playing at the Keeler Hill grounds here to day. It happened in the fourth inning and there was a panic among the crowd of 4,000 spectators. The Stamfords and the New Haven State League players were the contesting teams. One of the New Haven players was running from third base to the home plate. Kerr was stooping to eatch the ball; the runner slid when he was about three feet from the base, and as he did so his knee struck Kerr in the face. Kerr fell and bled profusely. Two women fainted, aman had a fit, and the crowd began to rush on the field. For a few moments there was great excitement.
